Need help coming up with social media posts?

We have some suggestions to help get the creative ideas flowing, as well as some pre-written posts that just need basic information plugged into them.

IDEAS TO WRITE YOUR OWN:

Funding-Related

- How has funding from OJP contributed to helping combat violence in your community? Write a post with what the funding did for your organization.
- How has OJP funding your organization changed perceptions – local or otherwise – of violence in your community?
- While OJP acknowledges there is still a lot of work to be done, how has OJP funding impacted community violence intervention progress in your organization?

Story Telling/Personal Impact

- Is there an individual that is willing to tell their story about how OJP funding helped them through your organization? Write it in a post.

Organization Successes

- How does your organization combat community violence?
- Create a graphic that shows how CVI has impacted your organization.

SOCIAL MEDIA POST EXAMPLES:

These will work for X (formerly known as Twitter) and can be adapted to fit any social media network. OJP is on X, Facebook, LinkedIn, and YouTube. These are meant to serve as examples, and we encourage our grantees to share your work and please tag OJP.
